

The implementation of the Project is based on a simple/economic Concrete structure with some expensive sophisticated windows. Since I am a Bolivian architect, I wouldn't know construction pricing for Bulgari. I am willing to travel and detail along the execution for the best architectural supervision possible. Varna seems like a nice place and the typology is definitely worth to learn and work for!