

Considering the budget restrictions, simplicity in structure and material were on the design agenda. The structure of the building is concrete frame which is accessible, easily applicable and reasonable and one of the most durable known structures. Therefore the budget will not exceed the restrictions. However, as non-local designers, it is not possible for us to estimate the value of the project explicitly.